Merry CHRISTMAS

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Whether you are a shepherd or an angel, a wise person, a child, a parent, or a sheep, know that you are welcome in this place.
There is joy to be found for you tonight.
God loves you. And so do we.

Welcome to St. Matthew's! We are glad you are here. If you are visiting, please fill out the Visitor's Card found in the pew so that we can get to know you. Everything you need to participate is in this worship bulletin. The people read the portions of the service printed in bold. The ushers will help you find your way to communion if you wish to receive.

Children are most welcome and are encouraged to participate in worship. To the parents of children: Relax! God put the wiggle in children. Sit toward the front so your little ones can see and hear. Go ahead and quietly answer their questions. If you don't know the answer, the Priest would love to talk to your little one. When you sing the hymns and join in the prayers, you teach little hearts how to be faithful; you are their best model. If you need to leave the service, that's okay. Don't be shy about coming back. It was Jesus who said, "Let the little children come to me." All are welcome! Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, there is a place for you at St. Matt's.

The Prelude

O come, all ye faithful — Musette Jeanne Demessieux (1921–68)
(No. 2 from 12 Preludes on Gregorian Chant Themes, Op. 8)
Andrew Leslie Cooper, organ

Ding dong! merrily on high 16th c. French tune harmonized by Charles Wood (1866–1926)
St. Matthew's Church Choir

Ding dong! merrily on high
In heav'n the bells are ringing;
Ding dong! verily the sky
Is riv'n with angel singing.
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis!
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis!

E'en so here below, below,
Let steeple bells be swungen,
And io, io, io,
By priest and people sungen.
Gloria...

Pray ye dutifully prime
Your matin chime, ye ringers;
May ye beautifully rhyme
Your evetime song, ye singers.
Gloria...

The Holly and the Ivy

English traditional tune

harmonized by Hugh Keyte (b. 1945)

St. Matthew's Church Choir

The holly and the ivy,
When they are both full grown,
Of all the trees that are in the wood,
The holly bears the crown.

*The rising of the sun
And the running of the deer,
The playing of the merry organ,
Sweet singing in the choir.*

The holly bears a blossom
As white as the lily flower,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ
To be our sweet savior.

The rising of the sun...

The holly bears a berry
As red as any blood,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ
To do poor sinners good.

The rising of the sun...

The holly bears a prickle
As sharp as any thorn,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ
On Christmas day in the morn.

The rising of the sun...

The holly bears a bark
As bitter as any gall,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ
For to redeem us all.

The rising of the sun...

The holly and the ivy,
When they are both full grown,
Of all the trees that are in the wood,
The holly bears the crown.

The rising of the sun...

String quartet

Whence is that goodly fragrance flowing?

French traditional carol

St. Matthew's Church Choir

Whence is that goodly fragrance flowing,
Stealing our senses all away?

Never the like did come a-blowing,
Shepherds, from flow'ry fields in May.

Whence is that goodly fragrance flowing,
Stealing our senses all away?

What is that light so brilliant breaking
Here in the night across our eyes?

Never so bright the day-star waking
Started to climb the morning skies.

What is that light so brilliant breaking
Here in the night across our eyes?

Bethlehem, there in manger lying,
Find your Redeemer, haste away!
Run ye with eager footsteps hieing,
Worship the Saviour born today.
Bethlehem, there in manger lying,
Find your Redeemer, haste away!

Ouverture-Suite in G major, TWV 55:G9 Georg Philipp Telemann (1681-1767)

IV. Courante

String quartet

How far is it to Bethlehem?

English traditional tune

harmonized by Gordon Lawson (b. 1931)

St. Matthew's Church Choir

How far is it to Bethlehem?
Not very far.
Shall we find the stable-room
Lit by a star?

If we touch his tiny hand,
Will he awake?
Will he know we've come so far
Just for his sake?

Can we see the little child?
Is he within?
If we lift the wooden latch,
May we go in?

For all weary children
Mary must weep;
Here, on his bed of straw,
Sleep, children, sleep.

May we stroke the creatures there —
Ox, ass, or sheep?
May we peep like them and see
Jesus asleep?

God, in his mother's arms,
Babes in the byre,
Sleep, as they sleep who find
Their heart's desire.

Overture-Suite in G major, TWV 55:G9 Georg Philipp Telemann (1681-1767)

V. Chaconne

VI. Menuet & Trio

String quartet

St. Matthew's Church Choir

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay;
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus - no crying he makes.
I love thee, Lord Jesus! look down from the sky,
And stay by my side until morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask thee to stay
Close by me forever, and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care,
And fit us for heaven, to live with thee there.

The Lighting of the Candles

Lector God of wonders that never cease, tonight the Savior is born. Tonight a light is given to all of us who walk in darkness, that we might see the glory of the Lord. Help us to know this light and to follow it always.

Celebrant Holy God you left the glory of heaven to take upon yourself our fragile humanity. You came to us in love and yet we denied you room. Tonight, we light candles and celebrate your birth as we seek to make room in our lives, our hearts, and this world for your promises of hope, peace, love, and joy. May these virtues shine brightly in our lives as we welcome you into our hearts and seek to proclaim your good news in the world this Christmas. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

The Reading

Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness-- on them light has shined.
You have multiplied the nation,
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

The Gospel

Luke 2:1-20

Celebrant

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Celebrant

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able. The Celebrant and People say together

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The People respond with the words in bold.

Intercessor Beloved of God, rejoicing in the love of God that has taken flesh among us in Christ Jesus, let us confidently bring to the Lord the petitions of our hearts this Christmas night, saying: God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Gracious God, as a star rose, and drew people from great distances to Bethlehem to greet the Christ-child; Draw us, your Church, and all of your people to you – that we might be the Church and the People who you call us to be. We pray especially for the Episcopal Church in Connecticut, for our Bishops, Jeff and Laura, for our Rector, Marissa, and for all the clergy and people of this diocese. God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As you gave Mary your Holy Spirit, filling her with your Presence; Fill us with your Spirit, and renew our lives. We give you thanks for this community at St. Matthew's, for the work you call us to do and for the joy you give us to share together. God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As Gentiles streamed to Jesus' Light, and Kings to the brightness of his rising; Draw our nation and all the nations of the world to his brightness. God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As angels sang and proclaimed peace on earth, and goodwill to all peoples; Bring us your peace, and bring an end to all terror and strife. We pray especially tonight for places in the world experiencing conflict and violence; especially for the Middle East and our Holy Land. May peace prevail on earth. God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As shepherds were drawn away from their flocks by night; Draw those who do not know you yet to the knowledge and love of you. God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Our Savior was born in a manger because there was no room in the inn; be present, O God, with those who have nowhere to lay their head, those who are vulnerable, and those who are hungry. God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. We pray for those who are sick or in need of our prayers, especially for Daniel, Kristen, Vinny, Antonio, Thomas, Diana, James, Carol, Susan, Lee, Arlene, Barbara, Mike, Jack, Chuck, Joan, David, Liz, Ann, Jack, Pat, Kathy, Dick, Scott, Martin, Ann, Melinda, Aaron, Dann and Presiding Bishop Michael Curry. We also remember those we name now either silently or aloud (the people are invited to offer their own intercessions); God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the members of our military, for first-responders, and for all who risk their lives on behalf of others; especially for Matthew and those we now name. God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray also for those who have died, and for all those we love and see no longer, especially those we now name (the people are invited to offer their own intercessions); God of love, Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We thank you, Lord for all the blessings of this life, especially for our families, friends, pets, and for all those blessings we now name (the people are invited to offer their own thanksgivings); God of love, Hear our prayer.

Silence may be kept.

Then the Celebrant adds a concluding Collect

O God, who wonderfully created, and yet more wonderfully restored, the dignity of human nature: Grant that we may share the divine life of him who humbled himself to share our humanity, your Son Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Confession

Then the Celebrant says Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence may be kept. The people stand or kneel as they are able.

Celebrant and People say together

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Please share a sign of the peace with your neighbors in the pews or with us online.

+ The Holy Communion +

After the Celebrant says an Offertory sentence, the congregation may be seated.

Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name; bring offerings and come into his courts.

Whether you've joined us today from near or far, in person or online, please consider making a Christmas gift to support the work of God at St. Matthew's.

Visit www.stmatthewswilton.org/offering. Designate it as a gift or as part of your pledge.

No gift is too small. All gifts honor the God who honors us with life, breath, love, and salvation. Please give generously.

Offertory Anthem

Nativity Carol

John Rutter (b. 1945)

Born in a stable so bare,
Born so long ago;
Born 'neath light of star
He who loved us so.

*Far away, silent he lay,
Born today, your homage pay,
Christ is born for aye,
Born on Christmas Day.*

Cradled by mother so fair,
Tender her lullaby;
Over her son so dear
Angel hosts fill the sky.

Love in that stable was born
Into our hearts to flow;
Innocent dreaming babe,
Make me thy love to know.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right and it is good to praise you, God who reigns in Majesty. You are with us now as you have always been with us, and as you were before time began. You made us and everything that is, and you revealed the truth about Yourself to your chosen people. And as you had always planned to do, you sent Jesus, Your spoken Word made flesh, to dwell among us. Mary carried Jesus in her body, and on this holy night he was born, true God of true God, and fully human like us.

In awe of you and of this tiny Child who has come, we join with the singing hosts of heaven:

Sanctus

IRBY

Ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord most ho - ly, God of pow'r and God of might:
Heav'n and earth re - veal your glo - ry. Hail, ho - san - na Lord of light!
Bless - ed be the com - ing Sav - ior. Hail, ho - san - na, Lord of light!

In this great gift that reverberated forward and backward throughout time, you saved us, God, and you saved all of Your beloved creation. We gave you all of our humanity, and you gave us all of your divinity, so that we might become more like you.

Many many years later, on the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Loving God, remembering now the suffering and death and proclaiming the resurrection and ascension of Jesus our Redeemer, we bring you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for us, your people, the Body and Blood of Christ. And send your Holy Spirit to renew us, to assure us of the gifts of Jesus, and to draw us into life with you Three who are One, the Holy Trinity.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. Amen!

Celebrant & People

AMEN! Amen! Amen!

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The gifts of God for the People of God.

All are welcome to come forward, as directed by ushers, to receive communion or a blessing. Please wait for the Ushers and follow their instructions. When you reach the center of the space, please open your hands and lay them flat to receive the bread or cross your arms over your chest to receive a blessing. You may then choose to drink from the silver chalice to your left or intinct (dip the wafer in the wine) in the clay chalice to your right. If you do not wish to receive wine, simply pass the cup, and make your way back to your seat. We believe Jesus is fully present in both the bread and the wine, so if you receive the bread, you have participated fully in communion. Let the Priest know if you need a gluten free wafer by first extending your palms down. If you would like to have communion brought to your pew, please let an Usher know.

If you are joining us from home or have not received communion, you may offer this prayer to the Lord.

The Act of Reception

Saint Augustine's Prayer Book (2nd ed)

The Celebrant and the People say together

In union, Blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory.

I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace.

Come Lord Jesus, and dwell in my heart in the fullness of your strength; be my wisdom and guide me in right pathways; conform my life and actions to the image of your holiness; and, in the power of your gracious might, rule over every hostile power that threatens or disturbs the growth of your kingdom, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Communion Anthem Infant holy, infant lowly Polish traditional tune harmonized by David Willcocks (1919–2015)

Infant holy, infant lowly,
For his bed a cattle stall;
Oxen lowing, little knowing
Christ the babe is Lord of all.
Swift are winging angels singing,
Noëls ringing, tidings bringing,
Christ the babe is Lord of all!
Christ the babe is Lord of all!

Flocks were sleeping, shepherds keeping
Vigil 'til the morning new;
Saw the glory, heard the story,
Tidings of a gospel true.
Thus rejoicing, free from sorrow,
Praises voicing, greet the morrow:
Christ the babe was born for you!
Christ the babe was born for you!

The Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant

Let us pray. Loving God,

People

We give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.

Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;

that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Postcommunion Hymn

“Silent Night”

STILLE NACHT

1 Si - lent night, ho - ly night, All is calm, all is bright
2 Si - lent night, ho - ly night, Shep-herds quake at the sight,
3 Si - lent night, ho - ly night, Son of God, love's pure light

1 Round you vir - gin mo-ther and child. Ho - ly in-fant, so ten-der and mild,
2 Glo-ries stream from hea-ven a - far, Heav'n-ly hosts sing al - le - lu - ia;
3 Ra-diant beams from thy ho - ly face, With the dawn of re - deem - ing grace,

1 Sleep in hea - ven-ly peace.____ Sleep in hea - ven-ly peace.
2 Christ, the sa - vior, is born!____ Christ, the sa - vior, is born!
3 Je - sus, Lord, at thy birth.____ Je - sus, Lord, at thy birth.

The Christmas Blessing

May the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the perseverance of the wise men, the obedience of Joseph and Mary, and the peace of the Christ child be yours this Christmas; and the blessing of God, Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier be with you this night and always. Amen.

Recessional Hymn

“Go tell it on the mountain”

Refrain:

Go tell it on the moun - tain, o - ver the hills and ev - 'ry - where;—

Go tell it on the moun - tain: that Je - sus Christ is born!

1 While shep-herds kept their watch-ing o'er si - lent flocks by night,——

2 The shep-herds feared and trem-bled when lo! a - bove the earth——

3 Down in a low - ly man - ger the hum - ble Christ was born,——

1 Be - hold through-out the hea - vens there shone a ho - ly light.——

2 Rang out the an - gel cho - rus that hailed our sav - ior's birth.——

3 And God sent us sal - va - tion that bless - ed Christ-mas morn.——

Dismissal

Celebrant Alleluia! Alleluia! Our Savior is born among us! Go in peace and love to find him and serve him in all the places you go and all the people you meet!

Merry Christmas from St. Matthew's!

If you're visiting us tonight, know that you are welcome. No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, no matter what might have kept you away, God's love is always with you. And there is a place for you at St. Matt's.

We pray that the Christ child will be born again in your life this Christmas, bringing you the gifts of faith, hope, and love. And that you might come and take your place at St. Matt's as we build a spiritual home where all people are welcome. God bless you, God keep you, and God bring you back safely again.

Welcome from the Rector

I'm so glad that your journey has led you to these pews on Christmas Eve. I hope our worship together tonight will offer you a glimpse into our life together, and that you'll come visit us on Sunday morning - that is the best way to get to know us! No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, there is a place for you at St. Matt's. Come as you are, bring your whole self, bring your questions, your wonderings, and your desire to know Jesus. No matter who you are, where you came from, what color your skin is, how you got here, or who you love, God loves you, and there is a place here for you.

St. Matt's is a warm and inclusive community of disciples who are learning to be apostles, meaning we are learning together how to serve Christ in the world. We take our faith and the work to which God calls us very seriously - but we don't take ourselves too seriously. You have come to a place of deep friendships, transformative relationships, ringing laughter, and authentic welcome. This is a place of rest and refreshment, a place of learning and growth, a place to come when you're looking for shelter from the storm. It's a place of special welcome for our kids, who are incorporated across all aspects of our life together. It's a place to experience beautiful sacred music as part of our worship, a place of many fantastic choirs. St. Matt's is also a place of many invitations: Join us as we participate in God's mission, come to a Bible study or an adult education program, worship in the beauty of holiness, and share your gifts and talents with us as we serve God together. It is an exquisite blessing in my life to serve as Rector in this place and to be partner in ministry to these faithful, generous, gifted Christians and I hope that you'll come to know the blessing of this community, too.

If you have questions, or if you'd like to connect with me, please don't hesitate to be in touch (marissa@stmatthewswilton.org). The Vestry, Staff, and I look forward to sharing the journey with you. Merry Christmas to you and to all whom you love.

Faithfully,

Choirs at St. Matthew's, Wilton

Music is vital to the lifeblood of our church and its community. Not only is it highly valued by the congregation, but music is fundamental to many aspects of the Episcopal liturgy. Our 10:00am service on Sundays features choir and organ throughout the program year.

St. Matthew's has a place for every child who wishes to sing in choir. Our Chorister program begins in Kindergarten and offers a first-rate musical education in a friendly, fun, and safe environment. Leading worship through music can empower children, ignite valuable self-confidence, and nurture a lifelong love of music. At the same time, they have fun and build friendships.

St. Matthew's Church Choir, which is open to adults and high-schoolers, forms the backbone of our choral music ministry and sings every Sunday. We relish meeting new members at any time and would be delighted to welcome you into our warm, friendly group.

All of our choirs are open to anyone, regardless of musical experience or faith background. Whoever you are, there is a place for you to sing at St. Matthew's.

Children and Youth at St. Matthew's, Wilton

Every child is welcome at St. Matthew's. And we want every single one of them to feel loved for just who they are. We create opportunities for kids of all ages to know the love of God and love of community, to learn about service, and to learn to love themselves. Faith formation makes a big difference in the lives of children today: it offers stability, it teaches resiliency, and it helps with the many challenges our kids face, including anxiety.

Spiritual formation starts in The Nursery program here and continues throughout High School. We offer childcare each Sunday so that parents have an opportunity to worship and tend to their own spiritual formation. And we love having kids in worship, so if you'd rather keep your little ones with you, that's okay. They are welcome to wriggle, and wiggle, and dance, and make noise. We are delighted to have them, no matter what kind of day it might be.

Our K-7 Church School programming also takes place on Sunday during our morning service and Middle School, High School and Confirmation sessions meet throughout the week. Regardless of age, our goal is to teach Children and Youth about the immense love of God towards them and the invitation that awaits them daily to follow God into the fullness of life and purpose.

All Children and Youth are welcome, whoever you are, wherever you are on your spiritual journey, there is a place for you at St. Matthew's.
